The respondent (the other spouse) must be officially served with copies of the divorce petition and summons. Service can be carried out by a process server, sheriff's deputy, or another qualified individual as per Florida law.

Key Considerations When Filing Divorce Papers in Florida

Filing for divorce involves more than just submitting paperwork. Here are some important considerations:

Uncontested vs. Contested Divorce

- Uncontested Divorce: Both spouses agree on all terms, making the process faster and simpler.
- Contested Divorce: Disagreements exist on issues like child custody or property division, requiring court hearings and potentially lengthy negotiations.

Legal Assistance

While Florida provides forms for self-representation, consulting with a family law attorney can ensure your paperwork is correctly completed and your rights are protected, especially in complex cases.

Waiting Period

Florida law mandates a waiting period of at least 20 days from the date of filing before the court can issue a final judgment, giving both parties time to reach agreements.

Fees and Costs

Filing fees vary by county but typically range from $350 to $400. Additional costs may include service fees, attorney costs, and fees for optional forms or processes.

Completing and Filing Divorce Papers in Florida

Filing Location

File your divorce papers at the circuit court clerk's office in the county where you or your spouse reside. Confirm whether online filing is available in your county.

Serving the Papers

Serve the divorce papers within the timeframe specified by the court, typically within 120 days of filing. Proper service ensures the case proceeds without issues.

Responding to Divorce Papers

The respondent has 20 days from service to file a response. Failure to respond can lead to a default judgment in favor of the petitioner.

After Filing: What Happens Next?

Once the divorce papers are filed and served, the case moves forward through several stages:

Negotiation and Settlement

Parties may negotiate terms, possibly with the help of attorneys or mediators, to reach an agreement on issues like custody, support, and property division.

Court Hearings

If disputes remain unresolved, the court will schedule hearings to make determinations on contested issues.

Final Judgment

After all issues are settled or decided, the court issues a Final Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage, which legally ends the marriage and enforces the agreed or court-ordered terms.
